24th Sunday after Pentecost

Epistle: Ephesians 2:14-22

Gospel: Luke 12:16-21

Christ is Among us!

Christ is among us! He is and always shall be! Welcome to St. Elizabeth Orthodox Church and thank you for celebrating the Divine Liturgy with us!! What a joy it is to be together in God's House. If you have never been to an Orthodox Church before, you are about to participate in the Divine Liturgy. The Liturgy is the work of the people and that means that all of your prayers are necessary and you have a job to do this morning! We hope you will stay and join us for coffee hour in the atrium. Please feel free to ask Fr. Matthew any questions you might have! May God's blessing be with all of you!

This Week's Music...

Tropar & Kondak Tone 7- Page 99

Kondak of Preparation for the Nativity Tone 3- Today the Virgin is on her way to the cave* where she will give birth in a manner beyond understanding* to the Word Who is in all eternity* Rejoice, therefore, universe, when you hear it heralded.* With the angels and the shepherds, glorify Him* Who chose to be seen as a newborn babe* while remaining God in all eternity.

Look on page two of the bulletin for more details on how to follow the order of the Divine Liturgy with the Blue Pew Book.

Advent and Thanksgiving

The days have become shorter. The clocks have been changed back. In the north, the first snowflakes have already fallen. Here in the south, the warmth of the sun has faded away and the first frost of the season has turned the early morning grass from green to a glistening white. The brilliant colors of the Autumn leaves have already lost their luster.

The beautiful autumnal changes loudly proclaim the passage of time. Watching the leaves change into their brilliant colors is something we all enjoy. There is something wondrous and childlike inside us that instantaneously draws us towards the beauty of these seasonal changes. One day, the green leaves of summertime change, and suddenly, in the blink of an eye, they are transformed. Those very same leaves on those very same trees are filled with dynamic reds and yellows and a type of grandeur that we didn't notice the day before. Psalm 65 tells us that the Lord crowns the year with goodness. When we gaze upon the beauty of God's creation in the brilliant colors of the fall leaves it's so easy to see how our Lord truly crowns the year with goodness.

As we enter into this season of Thanksgiving, this season of Advent (Nov. 15), the changing leaves can remind us of so much more than the momentary beauty they share with us before they fall to the ground. Much like the leaves show us their majesty before they wane and suddenly drop to the ground below, so too, when compared with eternity, our life passes by like a flash of lightning.

As the seasons of the year change, it should always remind us just how short our time on this earth is, and how Christ is calling us to Him, to make this short time He's given us count.

St. John of Damascus reminds of this in his beautifully inspired hymns that we sing at every funeral service: "As the flower withers, as the shadow passes, so every man dies." The changing of the seasons, the shortening of the daylight, and the leaves falling all remind us of this same reality—

We give thanks to You O Christ our God, for You have filled us with Your earthly bounty. Do not deprive us of Your heavenly kingdom, but as You appeared in the midst of Your disciples granting them peace, come also to us and save us!

our time in this life is short and we must cherish it in thanksgiving to our Lord who pours forth everything He has so that we can have life in Him. In this season of thanksgiving, as we enjoy the changing of the leaves and special time with our loved ones, we should also be reminded that each and every breath that we take is a precious gift from our God in Heaven.

Our time on earth is short. Our life is a precious gift that we must cherish with thanksgiving and gratitude to our God for all that He has so richly blessed us. St. Paul reminds us in his first epistle to the Corinthians that we were bought for a price; he is reminding us that Christ gave everything He could give for us on the Cross so that we could have life in Him. Christ poured out every drop of Himself so that we could have life, and...have it more abundantly (John 10:10). When we recognize the fact that our time is short and that our life is a precious gift from our Saviour, the only proper response is to deny ourselves, take up our cross and follow after Christ.

When we see our life as not our own, but as a gift that was bought with a price, only then can we truly cherish it. When we see our life as a precious gift, we care for that gift by looking at the world through Christ-like eyes; with a spirit of thanksgiving in our hearts for all that we have been so richly blessed with; for the opportunity to be transfigured in Christ's likeness and to dwell with Him and all the saints and angels in paradise.

When we do this, the beauty of creation all around us becomes obvious, just like the beauty and splendor of the colorful autumn leaves. But the fall leaves don't last forever. Their time is short, and so is our time here in this life. The beauty of the leaves is just like the beauty of the life that Christ offers to us as Orthodox Christians. We should cherish this time that God has given us and take advantage of it by living with love for our neighbor, living with forgiveness, living with joy, living with peace, living with repentance, and living with thanksgiving; for the leaves are beautiful, but soon they will fall.

Our life is a precious gift and soon, just like the leaves that change color and fall to the ground, our time will be up. Our Lord warns us to be prepared for our end to come in the Parable of the Ten Virgins in the Gospel of St. Matthew (25:1-13). Our Lord tells us in the parable, "Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish." The wise ones prepared beforehand, they took advantage of the time that God gave them, and when the Bridegroom came, they were ready to greet Him with the light of their lamps. The foolish ones were not ready and, in the end, after they plead with the Bridegroom, he tells them 'Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.' The Bridegroom will come in the middle of the night, at a time when we least expect it. Just as the flower withers, the shadow passes, and the leaves fall from the heights of their trees; the time will come for our soul to be judged, whether we are ready or not.

If we don't change now like the leaves above us change from green to golden, we will pass away from this life just like the leaves fall to the ground. We must ask ourselves—are we prepared; are we ready to take up our cross and do the work of being a member of the Body of Christ? Or will we be foolish like the five virgins who didn't prepare beforehand to meet the Bridegroom? When we fall into our blessed repose, will we reflect the image of Christ on the way down to the ground or the image of something else?

As we enter into this beautiful season of Advent and Thanksgiving and see the seasonal changes all around us, my prayer is that they remind all of us that our time on this earth is short and precious. Our life is a gift that we must cherish. The way to do this is to deny ourselves, our own ego, our own idea of what is right, and in turn focus on Christ, and love Him with all our heart, soul, and mind as He loves us. We have so much to be thankful for; let's be thankful now in the time that we have been given by Our Lord, God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. During this Advent season if we move toward Christ and become more like him, we offer him the gift of our whole self, as He lay in the manger for our salvation.

The Entrance of the Mother of God into the Holy Temple

"O holy Temple and living Paradise, tabernacle of the glory of Christ, virgin pure, blameless bride! You became the very dwelling place of God, and today you are led with joy into the Temple of the Lord, bringing with you the grace that is the divine Spirit." - From Vespers of the Feast

"O pure Virgin, by the light of your entrance, the holy place of the world is illumined. Today the uncreated Essence of God comes into the created temple of your womb. O pure one, you are shown forth as a holy temple, the most pure tabernacle, more exalted than the heavens." - From Matins of the Feast

St. Elizabeth's Orthodox Church Traditional Christmas Eve Holy Night Supper, Christmas Eve Vigil, and Christmas Day Divine Liturgy

Please be our guests and join with the St. Elizabeth Orthodox Church family for a traditional Christian celebration of the Feast of the Nativity of our Lord. In the Orthodox Church, the forty days before Christmas is known as the Nativity Fast, or Advent. Advent is a time of preparation for the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Orthodox Christians participate in a fast from certain foods during this time of preparation which includes abstinence from meat and dairy products on most days. The fast culminates on Christmas Eve with a meat and dairy free dinner known as Holy Night Supper. At this traditional dinner, born out of the mountains of eastern Europe, the family gathers together to celebrate and give thanks for the good tidings of great joy that the birth of Christ brings into the world. All are welcome to attend a similar dinner at no cost, hosted by the St. Elizabeth Orthodox Church Parish Family starting at 4:30 pm on Christmas Eve. Since St. Elizabeth's is an international community fasting dishes from all over the world will be represented at our version of the Holy Night Supper. In the Old World, after finishing the Holy Supper on Christmas Eve, the family would walk over to the Church for the celebration of the Christmas Eve Vigil, at St. Elizabeth's you will have the same opportunity to walk next door to the Church and celebrate the birth of Christ with your family. On Christmas morning the faithful will gather together once again to celebrate the Divine Liturgy, which is the central liturgical service in the Orthodox church. Come and see this ancient Christian celebration of the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! St. Elizabeth's is located at 2265 East Cherokee Drive in Woodstock. The dinner will begin at 4:30 PM with the Christmas Eve Vigil Service to follow at 6:30 PM. Also, please join us on Christmas morning as we celebrate the Birth of our New Born King with the traditional Orthodox Divine Liturgy at 10AM! If you have any questions please call at 404-268-6359.

Christ is Among us! He is and Always Shall be!

Dear Parish Family,

The Holiday Season of Thanksgiving and Christmas is soon to be upon us as the year draws to a close.

Are you looking for a special way to give back to God this Holiday Season? Become a Distinguished Diocesan Donor! Your Diocese invites you to become a part of the Distinguished Diocesan Donors Program. The Distinguished Diocesan Donors Program (DDD) which was founded By His Grace, Bishop John of Thrice-Blessed-Memory, offers the faithful and friends of the American Carpatho-Russian Orthodox Diocese an opportunity to assist, in a meaningful way to our Diocesan apostolates and ministries.

The Distinguished Diocesan Donors Program has become an instrumental source of funding for the expansion and maintenance of Camp Nazareth, the Information Technology Ministry, Christ the Saviour Seminary, Mission & Evangelization, and other Diocesan Apostolates and Ministries, having raised over $2.5 million dollars.

The seminary is soon to receive brand new facilities to house and educate our future priests. With a new seminary building project soon to be underway, supporting the DDD Fund during this time is very important. As a Mission Parish we have greatly benefited from the funds given out of love by the many members of our Diocese. What better way to say thank you this holiday season than by become a Distinguished Diocesan Donor.

To be an Orthodox Parish is to be part of an Orthodox Diocese. Just like we support our local Church as best as we are able, we are also all invited to support the important efforts of our Diocese as well. When we look at the beauty around us here at Saint Elizabeth's, we should feel gratitude for the steadfast support of our Diocese over the years. They have helped us take out loans to grow, supported our priests financially, and blessed us in so many ways.

For over 25 years the faithful members of our Diocese have helped us, so that by the Grace of God we can flourish and grow. This Thanksgiving Season, I invite you to say thank you, become a Distinguished Diocesan Donor, and support important Diocesan institutions like Christ the Saviour Seminary and Camp Nazareth. With love in Christ,
