Jobs we need you to do...

This is not just our house, but God's House. We come to Church every Sunday. We expect that when we get there the doors should be unlocked. The heat or air conditioning should be at the perfect temperature. The candles should be all lite. It should be the perfect environment for us to worship Christ. What we forget is that someone must do this job. We all enjoy coffee hour. We all eat, drink coffee, use dishes and throw out garbage. What we forget is that someone must make coffee, throw out the garbage, and clean up after the mess that we all make. We should all take time to thank those who clean up after us and prepare to make every Sunday' "perfect" for us. Starting in February there will be a new cycle. If you are a member of our Church family then you will take turns cleaning up every Sunday. If you can't make it one week, that's okay! You can always switch with someone else. All of this work is for all of us to do. To do it properly, we must do it in Christ. We must all take turns and be servants, as Christ serves all of us! Each month, cleaning the Church will be the responsibility of one family each Sunday. This is our duty as stewards to the Church of Christ. When you work for the Lord the pay may not be great, but the fringe benefits are out of this world!!

We Need You!
